Dear Parents

This week, music lessons and after schools clubs began and are well attended. Just a quick reminder to please let us know if someone else is collecting your child once club has finished.

The School Council have held their first meeting of the term and are already planning Sports Relief. They have also put a suggestion box in Reception for both children and parents to use. If you have a brilliant idea on how to improve the school, please pop your suggestion on a piece of paper and post it in the box by Monday 27 January. They will then have a look at all of your ideas!

Class 2 are getting excited about Bird Watch. The national event takes place from 25 January to 27 January and Class 2 will be taking part. Applications for primary places have now closed so if you know of anyone who needs to apply, ask them to contact Cornwall Council to make a late application.

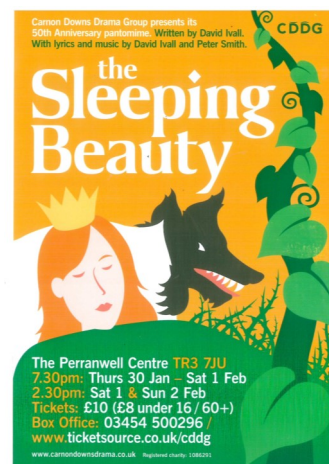

Radio 2 have today launched their 500 word story competition so if you have any budding writers who want to take part, visit

Well done to Jemma (class 3), taking to the boards this week in the pantomime Sleeping Beauty at Redruth. The Carnon Downs Drama Group are also putting on The Sleeping Beauty at Perranwell with Millie taking part.

Finally, please take care on the roads around school. The 'river' which was coming down the lane is now running across the lower playground. We have reported this and hope for a quick resolution but are mindful that it is set to turn colder next week so there is a risk of icy patches. Have a fun weekend.

Tim Barnard,
Head of School

Please note that requests for term time absence will only be authorised in exceptional circumstances. Applications need to be made at least 14 days in advance. If you decide to still take your child out of school, without permission, you will be committing an offence under the Education Act 1996. We may refer the matter to Cornwall Council who as the issuing officer may decide to take legal action against you. A Penalty Notice can be issued under Section 444A and 444B of the Education Act 1996. This carries a fine of £60 if paid within 21 days or £120 if paid after this but within 28 days. Fines are issued per parent/carer; per child. Failure to pay the Penalty Notice may result in Court action. Persistent absences not authorised by the school may result in a prosecution in the Magistrates Court, leading to fines up to £2,500 and/or custodial sentences. The Council may also apply for the costs incurred in taking the matter to Court.
