

CUSGARNE SCHOOL THIS WEEK

Date: 18 July 2019

	Dear Parents
Diary Dates 24 July Leavers Assembly 9.30am and Last day of school year, 1pm finish 25 July Summer holidays begin!	WOW! We had a real treat this week when KS2 performed Joseph to two packed audiences. They really were showstopper productions and we are all so proud of the cast.
	I know that families were full of admiration and praise and we have had some wonderful comments, including some great tweets. We particularly like the tweet "Blown away—a cast of superstars".
	My thanks go to Miss Palmer, Mrs Murray and Mrs Ireson for their hard work in putting the production together; and a huge thanks must go to Mrs Northey who, together with the children, did a wonderful job of the staging and scenery.
	I have received a heart warming email from the NSPCC who came into school last week for assemblies. I quote "I visit a great number of schools and I must say
4 September 2019 Inset Day	your school really felt special to me. The school has a wonderful welcoming feel and ALL of the children and staff I spoke to today had a smile on their faces which says it all. This doesn't just happen by chance and takes a lot of hard work and determination, so a massive well done to you all." We know that Cusgarne is a
5 September	special place and I am delighted that visitors recognise it too.
New school year begins	Well done to the black band readers who were treated to a day out at Camel Creek on Thursday. It was a pleasure to accompany them on a well deserved reward day for their reading efforts.
17 and 18 October Inset days	Thank you to those parents who have brought their ParentPay accounts up to date, but please make sure that any outstanding balances are cleared by Monday 22 July 2019.
School meals Please be aware that when we return in September, the price of a school dinner will increase by 5p. This makes the daily price of a school dinner £2.47. ParentPay will be updated to reflect this change from September 2019. Universal infant school meals	Our final celebration assembly of the school year is on Monday 22 July and term finishes on Wednesday 24 July. We will be saying farewell to our year 6's at a special assembly at 9.30am to which parents of year 6 pupils are invited and remember that school finishes at 1pm for all pupils next Wednesday.
	Have a super weekend—we're nearly there!
	Tim Barnard, Head of School
