Dear Parents

I would like to say how proud we are of the hockey team who took part in the tournament last Friday. They played 4 matches on astro pitches and sadly lost their first match to the overall winner. However, they showed brilliant resilience, settled in their game and remembered the skills they had been taught. At the end of the afternoon, they came third overall. They all enjoyed the event and have said that they would like to play more hockey.

This week, some of Class 3 are having a go at handball and I am delighted to see that the children are joining in with the range of sports on offer.

On Tuesday we continued our Cornish theme with a St Piran's Day lunch! The school was filled with the smell of pasties, and I think that this year, the pasties were better than ever! We even had a St Piran's March through school by Class 1 chanting Kernow bys vyken. Talking of all things Cornish, don't forget that the Gorsedh homework needs to be handed in by Monday 11 March!

Last week, Class 3 had a visit from Pete Williamson who is an astronomer and he gave an enthralling talk about space and astronomy. The children were fascinated about the stars and planets and he has since written to say what a remarkable group of children we have and how engaged they were. They asked him some of the toughest questions he has had!

On 18 March, children from years 1 through to 6 will be taking part in the Cornwall Music Festival. They will be split in 2 groups (years 1 and 2, 3 and 4, 5 and 6) and will recite a Cornish story from memory along with actions. Please check the bookbag post for full details along with the necessary consent slip.

We will be having a Spring Assembly on the last day of term when the children will be performing these stories for parents alongside some musical treats! Keep the date free and details will follow.

I also need to let you know that parent—teacher interviews will take place during the afternoon of Thursday 4 April and sign up sheets will be available from Monday.

We also had a FANTASTIC World Book Day so have a look overleaf!

Have a great weekend.

Cusgarne School celebrates World Book Day 2019

WOW! What an amazing array of characters and costumes this year! We had so many brilliant ones and it is clear that we love our books and stories at Cusgarne!

Red Nose Day—Friday 15 March 2019

Don't forget next Friday is Comic Relief and the school council would like you to come into school in your pyjamas!
Remember your £1 donation.
Thank you!

FRIENDS OF CUSGARNE NEWS

Didn't the children look fabulous for World Book day! It was great to see the playground awash with colour and costumes. We've had a great response to the book fair competition, and all entries will now be independently judged per year group by Kevin Furnish of the parish council, so good luck everyone!

BREWERY TOUR

Reminder for Saturday 09th March, please meet at Skinners Brewery for 4pm till 7pm.

BOOK FAIR, just 1 week to go – 15th, 18th & 19th

We had a fantastic response of job applications for the book fair takeover, from the children of Class 3; we were proud of the clear effort they had put into their forms, well done everyone! Positions have been awarded, and letters to the successful applicants have been sent home. We have Book Fair Managers, Display Specialists, Advertising Specialists, and Customer Service Assistants. Please come along to support our young entrepreneurs.

Book fair sessions are on Friday 15th March, Monday 18th March and Tuesday 19th March as follows:

- Morning sessions are 8:30am till 8:50am
- Afternoon sessions are 3:00pm till 4:00pm

For those of you who like value for money, check out the pre-paid vouchers available for purchase on the Scholastic website, all with 20% extra free (so for the cost of £10, for example, you'll receive a £12 voucher to spend at the fair).

COLOUR RUN – 02ND APRIL

Please note that the date was incorrect last week, the correct date is Tuesday 02nd April. Please keep a watch for letters coming out next week!

Tesco's 'Bags of Help' Scheme – TRURO STORE

Don't forget to drop the blue voting tokens into the box for "Friends of Cusgarne School" at the Tesco store in Truro. Maybe recruit family and friends too, to give us the best chance of winning £4,000 for school digital devices. Voting is now open until 30th April.

NEXT MEETING – Tuesday 09th April – 8:00pm (Cornish Arms)
