Dear Parents,

What a week it's been after receiving the phone call that Ofsted would be inspecting our school on Tuesday! I just want to say a huge thank you to all the parents who completed the Ofsted survey, to all the children who were so wonderfully behaved and polite to the inspectors, and to all the staff who supported each other & worked together to show what a wonderful community we have here at Cusgarne, where the children are at the heart of everything we do. We'll release details of the results as and when we can.

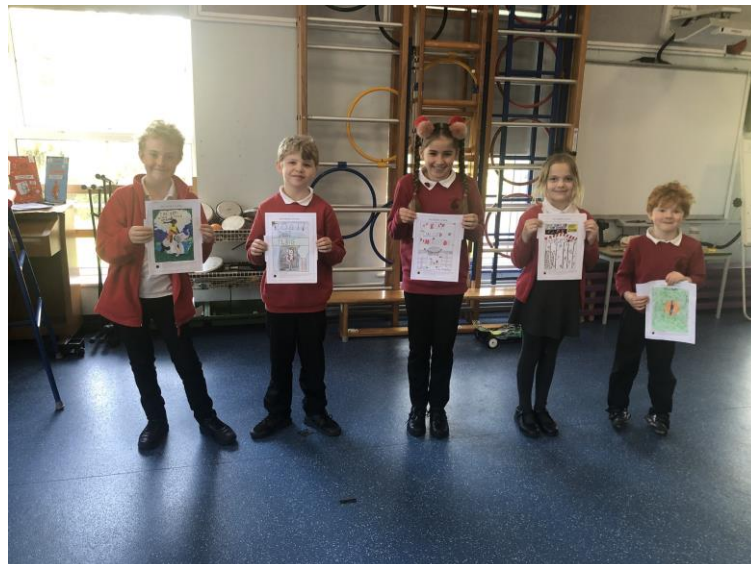

In other news, the Key Stage 2 children were able to glaze their clay tiles for the Frogpool Chapel community project on Wednesday. Please see the photos below, as you can see it looks like they all had a wonderful time!

It's been a joy to have the book fair back in school this week, I'd like to say thank you to Emma & all the friends who helped with the set up and running of the fair. We ran a book cover competition this week for the whole school, and 5 lucky winners won book vouchers to spend at the book fair. It was tough just having to pick 5, all the children put so much effort into their covers – as they are all so brilliant, we shall be displaying them in school for everyone to see!

A reminder to all our Robin class parents that we will be holding an open afternoon on Monday 28th March, 1.30pm-2.45pm. It's a fantastic opportunity for you to come in, spend time with your child in the classroom, and have a look around at our new classroom organisation. You'll also be able to view the new resources we have inside the classroom & in our outdoor area. We'd also like to take the opportunity to discuss with you our new phonics scheme 'Little Wandle', and there will be a short presentation about this on the day.

The Year 5 & 6 girls will be taking part in a football tournament tomorrow at Truro College 4G – we wish them all the best and can't wait to hear how they all get on!

I just want to say thank you to everybody who donated on our Comic Relief online donation page – we raised £72. Thank you also to all our bakers who provided donations for our cake stall.

Lastly, this week Kingfisher class will be saying goodbye to Miss Medcalf, and I think it's safe to say that the children have really enjoyed having her teach them this term. Luckily, she will be returning in a few weeks' time to teach the children of Starling class, and we're already looking forward to having her back in school.

Have a great weekend, and I hope you all get to enjoy the sunshine!

Yours Sincerely,

Tim Barnard
Head of School
