

1.7.20 Gorsedh Kernow Young People's Awards announced

Winners from Cusgarne School with the Grand Bard, Mellenek, in 2019

The Council of Gorsedh Kernow has announced the winners of their annual Awards for young people after careful consideration and review of this year's entries. Gorsedh Kernow Young People's Awards seek to encourage learning, understanding and promotion of Cornish culture.

"We are keen to give Awards to entries that highlight the Celtic spirit of Cornwall and express strong Cornish identity" said Grand Bard of Cornwall Elizabeth Carne, Mellenek, "and this year's entries demonstrate creativity in such a variety of ways. The work highlights the children and young people's love of Cornwall and its culture"

The Grand Bard expressed her heartfelt praise for all the schools and colleges that had taken part, and added that special mention must be made of Cusgarne School who, year on year, enter work of the highest standard that shows the deepest love for Cornwall. "The children astonish me year on year with the quality of their work and the effort that they put in to creating it," said Tim Barnard, Head of Cusgarne School, "particularly considering that the children have designed and created their entries at home."

Years 3 & 4 at St Just Primary School have been awarded joint first prize for the songs they wrote and performed as part of a project with Geevor Tin Mine

Class teacher, Anthony Matthews said, "Everyone at St Just School is extremely proud of the children who took part in the performances. The children loved the mining topic and showed such an enthusiastic approach to all areas of their learning. The children will be thrilled to receive the Gorsedh award."

Gorsedh Kernow Awards offer an exciting opportunity for school communities to explore a sense of place and celebrate Cornwall and its special history and culture. In usual circumstances the awards would be presented at a special awards evening at the Gorsedh Kernow Esedhvos festival of culture that takes place each September. Current social distancing restrictions prevent this from happening at present, but Gorsedh Kernow plan to celebrate the awards online in September on the Gorsedh Kernow website : www.gorsedhkernow.org.uk.
