Dear Parents

I hope you all managed some down time over half term and it finally looks as if Spring is on the way. We all enjoyed the sunshine on Monday and it looks as if we are going to have a nice few days.

We are really excited that school will fully re-open on Monday 8 March 2021 and are looking forward to seeing all your smiling faces! A full information letter will be sent home next week, and I'm sure many parents are relieved that there is only one more week of home schooling. Please remember that you can only do, what you can do.

If you need some different ideas, the Cornwall Library Service has a new eResource for library members. Please see the information leaflet at the end of this bulletin.

Pastor Adrian has also been in touch and he is really missing us! The Open the Book team and local parishioners from Twelveheads Methodist Church have hung a banner on the gates of the chapel which says 'Let's put Live into Action'. If you would like to join in, they are asking that you make a weather-proof heart dedicated to a loved one and hang in on the gate. Perhaps if you are local enough, you can venture past on your daily walk?

Next Thursday, it's World Book Day! Whether you are at school or home, please dress up as a book character. We would love to see your photos and try to guess who you are! Remember that your £1 book vouchers were emailed home before half term and you have until 28 March 2021 to use them. Reading Eggs have some special resources available to help you explore the world of books, alongside activities from the World Book Day website <https://www.worldbookday.com/>

On Friday 5 March it is St Piran's Day. Across Cornwall, the black and white Cornish flag will be flying and pasties will be eaten. The children in school can order a pasty lunch – either steak or cheese and onion. We would also like to continue to support the Gorsedh Kernow with their annual Young People's Awards. We have been involved with the Gorsedh awards for several years and this year, all entries will have to be submitted on-line by parents. Full details will be posted on Google classroom so please have a read.

We also have advance notice that Red Nose Day will be on Friday 19 March 2021 and we will be asking the school council for their ideas to join in with the fun. Watch this space for updates!

Finally, please do contact us using hello@cusgarne.org for any queries or questions you may have. Enjoy the sunshine over the weekend.

Yours sincerely

Julia Murray
Acting Head of School
